

ONL's Fall Leadership Lunch Series:

Designed for Team Engagement

It's been a hard year and we all need time to reconnect as a community of nurse leaders. This interactive live educational series is designed to connect nurses, nurse leaders, and teams within organizations to contemporary national thought leaders. Sessions are structured to promote sharing of ideas among teams as speakers provide stimulating content.

When: Third Friday of each month; Fall 2020

Time: 12-1:30pm EST, 1.5 contact hours will be provided

Tener Goodwin
Veenema

Pandemic
Preparedness-
Lessons Learned

September 18

[Additional
Information](#)

Angelleen
Peters-Lewis

Racism: A
Preventable Harm

October 16

[Additional
Information](#)

David Zuckerman

Improving the Health of your Communities
Beyond Clinical Care

November 20

Additional Information

Barbara Mackoff

Team Resilience and Appreciation:
8 Habits of Mind in
Challenging Times

December 18

[Additional
Information](#)

Program Logistics:

Organizations may purchase access to this live education series for their team:

Full series (4 modules) $3000; 1 module $1000

Sessions will take place using Zoom and a link will be provided to those who register.

Individuals wishing to purchase one or all of the modules, please contact info@oonl.org