

ONL's Fall 2021 Leadership Lunch Series

2021 is proving to be a challenging year for health care providers. This interactive, live educational series is designed to connect nurses, nurse leaders, and teams with contemporary national thought leaders. Sessions are structured to promote sharing of ideas as speakers provide insights and tools to help nurses and leaders stay informed and inspired. Nurses rave about this program that is quickly becoming a new ONL favorite. Registration information below. Space is limited.

Program Schedule

Friday, September 17, 2021; 12:00 - 1:30pm

Eileen K. Fry-Bowers PhD, JD, RN, CPNP, FAAN

Program Title: Nursing at a Crossroads: Where Do We Go From Here?

Synthesizing what we know and where we might go, Dr. Fry-Bowers will discuss recently released reports, including the Nursing 2020-2030 Report, the new AACN Essentials, current progress regarding the NINR 2022-2026 Strategic Plan, recent trends in nursing licensure and regulation, and lessons learned from the pandemic. This program will challenge participants to think broadly about a new vision for nursing.

Friday, October 15, 2021; 12:00 - 1:30pm

Donna Wright MS, RN, NPD-BC

Program Title: Building our Bold New Future through Professional Development and Competency Assessment

We can build a bolder, brighter future... By applying a fluid and dynamic understanding of nurse competency, leaders can create flexible and engaging work environments. Donna is an expert in professional development and pragmatic strategies to strengthen work environments. This session will stimulate participants to creatively imagine a bold new future for professional development and practice.

Friday, November 19, 2021; 12:00 - 1:30pm

Beverly Malone PhD, RN, FAAN

Program Title: Purpose, Power and Passion: The Need to Dream

Dr. Malone is President and CEO of the National League for Nursing and has vast experiences in nursing leadership to draw upon as she leads an engaging discussion centering around our purpose and what called us into nursing, power dynamics that surround practice, and the passion that keeps us sustained. The dialogue with Dr. Malone is designed to inspire and elevate thinking among nurses, leaders and teams.

Friday, December 17, 2021; 12:00 - 1:30pm

Teri Pipe PhD, RN

Program Title: Establishing Rituals of Renewal

Wellness is often addressed at an individual level, but increasingly units, organizations, and communities are considering their roles in making wellness possible. Dr. Pipe will discuss the value of establishing rituals to intentionally address wellness for individuals and within systems.

Program Logistics:

- Organizations purchase access to this live education series for their team.
- Individuals must register to receive the meeting link and program evaluation.
- To purchase as an organization or an individual, please contact info@oonl.org
- Attendees are eligible for 1.5 Contact Hours for each program, 6.0 for the full series.

Pricing for all 4 programs:

Up to 100 participants: $5,000
Up to 50 participants: $4,000
Up to 25 participants: $3,000
Up to 10 participants: $2,000
Individual pricing available