

Nurse Leader Master Class

Next Level Leadership Development for Nurses

ONL's new cohort-based executive-style leadership development program utilizes national speakers who engage participants in facilitated content and discussion to add depth to each leader's capacity. During each of the three interactive sessions participants will engage with faculty and each other to explore new content, build new relationships, and gain knowledge and insights to be applied in their leadership practice.

Target Audience: Nurse leaders already in formal leadership roles, including: Nurse Managers, Nurse Directors, Educators, Clinical Nurse Leaders; past Leadership Academy graduates welcome as well!

Dates: Friday April 23; Friday April 30, and Friday May 7

Time: 9am-3pm (EST), via Zoom

Contact Hours: Participants must participate in the full program each day to receive contact hours
5 contact hours will be awarded each day

Cost: $1,249 (includes 1 year ONL membership)

Barbara Mackoff

Leading yourself: Investing your time in light of mission; motivating and caring for yourself and your team; and the two-way street of trust.

Gaurdia Banister

Advancing diversity and inclusivity: Unpacking racism in health care and nursing; exploring lived experiences; and developing personal and team approaches to reducing bias and advancing inclusivity.

Deborah Gerardi

Coaching through change: Deepening your connection to yourself, your values and your perspective to move through disorienting dilemmas, and expand your ability to step into uncertain and chaotic situations.