ONL

Organization of Nurse Leaders

Advancing a culture of health.

Great leadership practice stems from curiosity and connectivity. Join us for the ONL Spring Quarterly Meeting to connect with colleagues and hear ideas about nurse engagement, culture, and leadership practice innovations. An hour of our time together will be dedicated to focused discussion with leaders who are having success leading practice in different ways. The meeting will conclude with a keynote presentation from Dr. K. Kelly Hancock.

Ignite Dialogue

ONL members are providing tremendous leadership. The goal of this Ignite Dialogue is to share emerging best practices, and promote nurse leader collaboration. We have 75 minutes dedicated to a focused dialogue designed to sharing promising interventions and learn from each other.

Supporting Culture in Times of Change: Insights on Leading Engagement, Well-Being and Retention

Dr. K. Kelly Hancock
DNP, RN, NE, BC, FAAN

Chief Caregiver Officer for
Cleveland Clinic Health System

What does nurse well-being and engagement and leadership look like in times of a global healthcare workforce shortage? Drawing on her experience leading caregiver engagement for more than 70,000 team members at Cleveland Clinic, Dr. Hancock will help nurse leaders think about empowering front-line nurses to have control over practice. She will share lessons learned during the pandemic, and ideas about how to maintain culture in the midst of a workforce shortage. Dr. Hancock will help nurse leaders define a path forward during this pivotal moment in healthcare.
