Gain insights, inspiration, and actionable strategies and connect face-to-face with fellow nurse leaders!

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION

Justin Bala-Hampton, DNP, MPH, MHA, APRN, NEA-BC, FNYAM
Chief Nursing Officer and Senior Principal-Nurse Executive, Accenture Radiant Global Services

The Future of Nursing in the Age of AI: Leading the Transformation of Care

Artificial intelligence is rapidly reshaping healthcare, but what does it mean for nursing? Drawing on real-world examples, healthcare leader and innovator Dr. Justin Bala-Hampton will challenge leaders to think beyond technology adoption and consider how AI can be leveraged to strengthen the nursing workforce, improve outcomes, and create new possibilities for the future of care delivery.

PANEL DISCUSSION

The Nursing Leadership Advantage: How Nursing Prepares Leaders for the Highest Levels of Healthcare

Maria Ducharme, DNP, RN; Chris Ann Meaney, DNP, MHA, RN-BC, NE-BC, FACHE; and Kevin Whitney, DNP, RN

Nursing develops far more than clinical expertise—it cultivates resilience, systems thinking, collaboration, and the ability to lead through complexity. During this discussion, healthcare CEOs and COOs who began their careers in nursing will reflect on experiences that shaped their leadership journeys and discuss why nurses are uniquely positioned to lead healthcare into the future.

ONL Business Meeting

The ONL Business Meeting shares key updates and insights about ONL's work to empower nurse leaders and advance nursing leadership. Join us to learn about ONL priorities, project highlights, programs, policy and legislative activity in the region, developments impacting nursing practice and leadership, and more. This is also a forum in which ONL recognizes our members' recent milestones and achievements. All are invited to attend.
